

No action by the FCC should be taken that gives a select few control of the media. Consolidation will only weaken our public communication. Govt. agencies were put in place to protect public interest and enhance citizens' lives, not take control. Let's see the FCC take its responsibility seriously for the common good. I oppose taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation.